

up after threat call

IN HIS HOUSE

She alleged that the accused called her sister to a hotel, forced her to drink heavily and failed to take her to a hospital when she fell sick.

Giving out further details, a senior officer privy of the case said, "They drank heavily in the hotel and left the hotel at around 1 am next day in an inebriated state. The woman was so drunk that she was brought down in the hotel lobby on a chair and the same has been captured in the CCTV cameras."

Police said Ajay, who was driving the victim's car, fled after leaving the vehicle and the victim behind at around 2.10 am on Wednesday.

"We have identified the accused but are yet to nab them. We have already sent our police teams and hopefully they will be arrested soon," a policeman said.

A case under Section 304 (committing culpable homicide not amounting to murder), 201 (causing disappearance of evidence) and 34 (acts done by several persons) of Indian Penal Code has been registered at the Zirakpur police station.

HT Correspondent

chandigarh@hindustantimes.com

MOHALI: Police have increased the security of Punjabi singer Tejinder Singh, popularly known as Babbu Maan, after he received a threat call from an unidentified person.

A senior police official revealed that earlier, four cops were deployed for his protection, now the number has been increased to 16. He added, "The state government doesn't want to take chances after singer Sidhu Moosewala's killing."

While cops are still investigating the matter, sources said the call is suspected to have come from the Bambiha gang.

Notably, over apprehension of an attack, over 300 cops, armed with weapons and wearing bullet-proof jackets, had been deployed during Maan's stage show in Kubaheri village Mohali on Tuesday.

Mohali senior superintendent of police Sandeep Garg remained unavailable for comments.

CHANDIGARH : A 50-year-old man was found dead at his house in Dhanas on Thursday afternoon.

He was identified as Pitardeen Yadav. Neighbours informed the police after they detected foul smell coming from his house. No suicide note was recovered from the spot, and cops said there were no visible injury marks on the body. The door of his house, however, was found open. Police said the deceased's wife had died and that he was an alcoholic. The body has been sent for autopsy.

HTC

Kumar
e it mangator to rmit to

of five be sus-stemic safety of r violations.

ving up at delegation

IN 2012, THE HERITAGE INVENTORY COMMITTEE HAD LISTED 12,793 ITEMS DESIGNED BY LE CORBUSIER, PIERRE JEANNERET

should be earmarked to repair the furniture. "The UT administration should raise awareness among the people about the furniture, and maintain a log so that no more items are stolen."

Over the last three days, the six-member team has visited the Government Museum and Art Gallery, Sector 10, Government College of Architecture, Sector 12, and Panjab University. It will submit its report to the French Embassy with suggestions and recommendations for conservation and restoration of city's heritage items.

It will also help establish the authenticity of heritage items, tag them, and lay down guidelines and processes for its conservation, restoration, and legal protection.

www.hansrajpublicschool.com

HANSRAJ PUBLIC SCHOOL

(Affiliated to C.B.S.E., New Delhi)

Sector 6, Panchkula

A right step towards A bright future

Registration Open

(2023-24)

NURSERY | LKG | UKG

Forms available from 19 Nov. to 25 Nov. 2022
(Timing: 9am to 2pm)

To download please visit
www.hansrajpublicschool.com

Last date to submit the forms 28 Nov. 2022
before 2:00 pm

Tel. 0172 2573800, 2574800
Mob. 9646024900

E-mail: principalhps6@gmail.com

Age Criteria as on 31 March 2023

- Nursery: 3 years +
- LKG: 4 years +
- UKG: 5 years +

AY OPEN